Quota or No Quota, Campaign Will Close Friday, Says Manager Davenport.

BUSINESS MEN HOLD BACK

Workers Have Been Faithful but Cannot Be Held Longer for Poor Results.

Those Who Have Not Subscribed to Extent of Means Will Again Be Visited.

Tulsa's Victory loan campaign or-ganization will be dissolved Friday. "We are going to quit Friday folowing the noon luncheen, win or cose quota or no quota." This was the statement of A. V

Davenport, city manager of the loan campaign forces, made Tuesday eve-ning at the end of eight days' work, when it was found that there had been only $3,375,750 worth of bends rchased. Bonds to the amount $2,253,250 must yet be sold to complete Tulsa county's quota omplete Tulsa county's quota.

Davenport, "anyone who cares to purchase bonds must go to the banks, for I am going to release the workers from further service. I can't deny that I am discouraged and that the outlook is gloomy for any kind of a respectable finish.

"Tulsa has laid down messable

"Tulsa has laid down miserably. It is just one more testimonial to the fickleness of the American pub-

the lickieness of the American pub-lic. Now that the war is over it is forgotten. Posters, speakers, ap-peals to patriotism and public demonstrations have all failed to accomplish the purpose and 'finish the job' in true Tulsa spirit.

"We are going to quit Friday and as far as we are concerned the job

"We are going to quit Friday and as far as we are concerned the job will then be finished. Certain business men who have not subscribed to the extent of their means may be called upon by special committees and requested to increase their subscriptions. But the van of the workers will be discharged Friday. It is foolish to force the willing few to carry the burden that all should share."

In order to release some of the workers who have devoted their en-workers who have devoted their en-tire time to the issue the Victory forces will be augmented this afternoon by new solicitors. Although Friday has been definitely named as the last day of the campaign a spe

THE WEATHER

You may live your generation through and not become a man.
You may build a great cathedral and still fail the Master's plan.
You may be a skillful workman and the topmost beights may gain,
But still if that is all you do your life is apent in vain.

REAL GLORY
You can do a lot of clever things and not be truly great.
You can paint a perfect picture and still skin your soul with hate;
You can heard up gold and silver till your time of life shall end
And still remain unhonored here and never have a friend.

For the things which make for greatness are not joyn of power and skill.

The tyrant with his conquering troops remains a tyrant still.

And the sculptor with his chisel and the poet with his pen Must find their glory not in works, but how they lived as men.
